UD STUDENTS MAKE "CLEAN SWEEP"

DAYTON, Ohio, March 15, 1982 -- The University of Dayton in cooperation with the City of Dayton is having a neighborhood clean-up program on Saturday, March 27 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The "clean sweep" will involve approximately 250 UD students who volunteer their time for this effort.

University director of Off Campus Housing, Joseph Belle says this semi-annual clean-up program "demonstrates the students concern for their community. UD students care about their neighborhood just like anyone else." The volunteers come from Student Association, Off Campus Center and other campus organizations.

The City of Dayton Southeast priority board assists the "clean sweep" effort by providing equipment such as brooms, rakes, sweeping machines and trucks for the trash.

For more information contact Joseph Belle at 229-3317.
